

NEGOTIATORS' LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING

1. The Chief Negotiators for Kitselas First Nation, British Columbia and Canada (“Chief Negotiators”) have been engaged in treaty negotiations to conclude an Agreement-in-Principle (“AIP”) to advance the resolution of the aboriginal rights and title claims of the Kitselas First Nation.
2. This Letter of Understanding confirms the understanding among the Chief Negotiators that:
 - a. They have completed substantive negotiations of an AIP, which is dated September 10, 2012 (Draft AIP);
 - b. They have chosen to defer substantive negotiations to the Final Agreement stage on some issues as indicated in the Draft AIP;
 - c. The Draft AIP will undergo a legal and technical review and that as a result of such review changes may be required to the Draft AIP prior to initialing and approval; and
 - d. Any of the Chief Negotiators may require further negotiations, further changes to the Draft AIP or indicate other requirements to be met before the Draft AIP can be initialed or subsequently approved.
3. Following the review referred to in c. above and subject to any changes being made or other requirements being met as described in d. above:
 - a. The Chief Negotiators will seek authority from their respective principals (“Principals”) to initial the AIP; and
 - b. After the AIP is initialed the Chief Negotiators will submit the AIP for approval by the Principals in accordance with paragraph 1 of Chapter 25 of the Draft AIP.
